

Life as you know it with PETS

Title

By Arianna [REDACTED]

Hi! My name is Arianna H. [REDACTED], the "H" stands for Haya, and that is sometimes my nickname. Today I "lost" my fish. I came home from school and what do you know the fish is dead. I could not eat. My baby-sitter was babysitting me, so she offered to "flush" it but my brother said "No, the fish shall rest in peace until Mom gets home!" I said, "I can't eat with that poor thing on the table!" The next thing you know, my brother went into the bathroom with the fish bowl, and YOU DON'T WANT TO KNOW! Another experience I had with pets is at Grandma's house. One day my mom drove me to Grandma's. She was coming out the door with her dog. The dog ate pizza that after-noon so this yellow stuff kept coming out of his mouth. <sup>eww</sup> Yuck that was nasty. My brother and I have had lots of PET experiences.
